

Please do not allow the banks/credit card companies or anyone else to call our homes. The no call law in Indiana has been a God-send. We now get to eat in peace. Unsolicited sales calls are annoying at best. If I want their product, I will look/call for them. Karen Davis